has vacated the property or the end of the term, whichever is later. If the Landlord withholds any amount of the deposit, the Landlord agrees to provide an itemized list of any deductions.

VI. Late Payment. If the rent has not been paid in full by the due date the Landlord has the right to:

- Charge the Tenant a penalty of $_____ per day until the rent is paid in full.

- Charge the Tenant a penalty of _____ percent (____%) of the rental amount per day until the rent is paid in full.

*Note that many states provide for a maximum penalty that may be charged for the late payment of rent, and that many states do not consider rent to be late until a period of days have expired the agreed-upon due date.

VII. Utilities. Landlord and Tenant agree that the following utilities shall be the responsibility of:

Cable - Landlord Tenant

Electricity - Landlord Tenant

Heat - Landlord Tenant

Internet - Landlord Tenant

Trash - Landlord Tenant

- The Landlord does not allow any type of pet on the property except for those necessary for use by the disabled, elderly, or as prescribed by law.

c. Guests.

Occupancy by more than _____ guests is prohibited unless the Tenant obtains written permission from the Landlord.

Any guest on the property is allowed to stay for a period of _____ days months.

IX. Landlord's Access to Premises. The Landlord may enter the property by giving _____ days' hours' notice to the Tenant. Notice may be in the mail, slipped under the door, or via cell phone. (Make sure to check current applicable State Laws.) In addition to giving notice, the Landlord may also enter the premises under any of the following conditions:

- A. In any emergency situation that requires immediate action for the preservation of the property;
- B. If illegal activity is occurring on the property;
- C. If Tenant unreasonably withholds consent; or
- D. If the Tenant has vacated the property or has not been present for more than fifteen (15) days.

X. Default. Either party may be considered in default through the following:

- A. Landlord's Default. The Landlord will be considered in default:
 - 1. If a utility has been cancelled that is the responsibility of the landlord.
 - 2. If the Landlord prevents the Tenant from accessing the property.
 - 3. If the Landlord makes any unnecessary repairs that are considered a detriment to the tenant's quiet enjoyment of the property.
- B. Tenant's Default. The Tenant will be considered in default:
 - 1. For failure to pay rent within three (3) business days of the due date unless a "grace period" exists in the State. If such a grace period does exist, then the Tenant will be in default if rent is not paid by the end of the state grace period.
 - 2. For causing severe damage to the property.
 - 3. For Failure to follow any of the terms and conditions stated in this lease agreement.

C. Waiver.

The Landlord may not accept rent or performance during the course of terminating the lease agreement. If the Landlord does accept rent or performance, the lease agreement is valid and enforceable by the Tenant.

- 1. Tenant is not required to pay rent if the property is considered uninhabitable. Furthermore, if, at the beginning of the lease agreement, the Landlord fails to return the property to move-in condition, then a partial rental payment may be accepted.

XI. Possession. The following shall take place after the authorization of the lease agreement and payment of any applicable deposits or rental payments by the Tenant:

1. Tenant shall receive immediate access to the property. If the Landlord fails to grant occupancy, the Tenant has the right to terminate the lease agreement and may have the option to seek damages.
2. Landlord shall grant possession of the property to the Tenant by providing access to all of the following, but not limited to: doors, mailboxes, common areas, trash areas, and storage facilities. If the Tenant does not accept occupancy, the lease agreement will be considered in default.

XII. Subleasing/Assigning. The Tenant is barred from subletting or assigning any part of the property to another person or entity without the express written consent of the Landlord.

XIII. Maintenance. The Tenant is required to maintain the same sanitary condition throughout the term of the lease agreement as it was upon move-in. If any necessary repairs are needed, it is the Tenant's responsibility to inform the landlord as soon as possible of any defect(s). In the event of any water leaks, the Tenant has a duty to mitigate damage until necessary repairs have been made.

XIV. Disclosure Addendums. Tenant agrees that the Landlord has shown them the following documents by initialing below:

- ____ - State Disclosures described as _____
 - ____ - Lead Paint Disclosure Statement - For all structures built before 1978.
 - ____ - Move-In Checklist
 - ____ - Other described as _____
 - ____ - Other Addendums that are described as _____

XV. Disclaimer. If any part, sentence, or section of the lease agreement is considered invalid, the invalidity does not affect the parties from being legally liable for the remaining terms and conditions.

XVI. Tenancy. If the Tenant misrepresented any claim in the lease agreement or in the process of authorization, i.e. the "Rental Application," the Tenant may be found in violation of the Lease Agreement and be subject to default.

XVII. Time. Time is of the essence.

XVIII. Other Agreements. This legal document represents the entirety of the terms and conditions by which each party must abide. Any other agreements or deals made on behalf of the Landlord or any Tenant must be attached or incorporated by reference to be considered legally enforceable.

XIX. Signatures. In the witness whereof, the Landlord and Tenant agree to the terms and conditions to the executed lease agreement dated
