DISLCOSURES
HUD Disclosures: If you remain in the leased unit on the date specified for termination, we will enforce the termination only by bringing a judicial action at which time you may present a defense. You have ten days within which to discuss this eviction with the landlord and/or management. This ten day period begins on the earlier of the day this notice is/was hand-delivered to you (the Tenant) or the day after the date upon which this notice was mailed. The discussion period does not extend the date for termination. If you request such a meeting, the Landlord agrees to discuss this termination with you. Rural Development Disclosures: Prior to the date set for either corrective action or termination, you may informally meet with the landlord and/or management in order to attempt to resolve the stated violations. During our normal business hours (typically 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday), you or your counsel may review your file and copy any information it contains to aid in your defense. Your file is located at the either the address contained in this notice or at the landlord's address listed in your rental agreement. Please note, however, that if you remain in the leased unit on the date specified for termination, we will enforce the termination only by bringing a judicial action at which time you may present a defense.
